A resolution was adopted by both Houses yesterday to provide for a Convention to-morrow to count the vote for Governor. In the Senate bills to amend the charter of the Franklin College and Stone's river turnpike company; to allow constables to levy fees; and to repeal the assessment law, passed on first reading.

In the House, bills to restore the tippling laws; to repeal the county judge law; to repeal the revenue act of last session; to prevent us-less exp use in litigation, &c., passed on first reading; and a resolution appointing a committee, consisting of Messrs. Algee, Wilson and Maney to wait upon the clargy of the city and invite them to open the deliberations of the House daily with prayer, was adopted

The proceedings thus far indicate an eager desire on the part of members to rid the statute book of the County Judge and Assessor laws; both of which are more "sinned against than sinning."

Mechanic's Fair.

This exhibition is attracting very general attention, and is crowded every day and night from its opening to its closing. The officers of the Institute | Munday. have been more fortunate than usual in procuring rooms for the exhibition, having three large and commodious rooms, in the elegant building lately occupied by Evans & Co. The contributions range brough almost every department of art and mehanism, and are generally of superior workmanship and finish. We have not time, this morning, to o into details, and will have to content ourselves with expressing our gratification at the complete success with which the managers and contributors have crowned the enterprize.

WORK SUSPENDED -We regret to see that the improvements being made on the wharf have been from the city. su-pended, owing to a deficiency of "metal in the treasury." This is an important improvement, and we trust that our city fathers will see that it is speedily pushed forward to completion.

OPEN -Our clever friends J. & W. MOORE have OPEN — Our clever friends J. & W. Moore have opened one of the neatest and most complete restaurants to be found in the city, on the corner of Cherry and Cedar Street, where day boarders can be accommodated and meals can be procured at all times during the day. Their table will be supplied with all the luxuries of the season, and fish and game can be procured at all times. We were present on Tuesday evening last and witnessed a general distribution of good things, served up in superior style, and left satisfied that whomsoever may call can be satisfied without any more.

BROADWAY HOTEL -We are pleased to see that this house has opened under such favorable circumstances. Mr. BRANCH, the gentlemanly proprictor, seated a large number of invited guests on Tuesday last, all of whom seemed well pleased, and evinced their approbation of the good fare spread, by indulging freely and wishing success to the Broadway.

ARRIVED .- Col. Wood, the renowned Museum man, has arrived with Charg and Eng, better known as the Siamese Twins, and is now open for exhibition on College street, over Beech's store, day and night.

OPENING DAY .- Our lady readers must not forget that this is opening day at the New York Millinery Emporism on Union Street. They are fond of the beautiful, and there they will find the most lovely bonnets and other adornments of the sex. We have never seen any thing more beautiful than the arti les which have there been held in reserve to astonish and be wilder the beholder.

THE MECHANIC'S FAIR .- We learn that the fair will wind up with a grand ball, tickets to which can be obtained to-night. A glorious time for enjoyment to those who love to dance. Go in, and make a night of it.

AN IMPORTANT ITEM TO THE SURVIVORS OF THE LATE WAR WITH MEXICO. LANCASTER C. H., S. C., May 12, 1856.
FR. C. M. JACKSON Dear Sir: —After my return from Mexico, I was seriously afflicted with that terrible disease which has carried to the grave so many of my fellow-m ldiers, Chronic Diarri ca, accompanied with Neuralgia brought on by the elimate of Mexico, and the mode of nving, while engaged in the war. The relef I have ob-ained from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters is asoni hing, and I most cheerfully have, and still continue to r commend the stitters to all who are similarly affected, believing that the benefit that will result from their use will be incalculable.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 4. WHEAT-The Wheat market has been much depress WHEAT—The Wheat market has been much depressed during the week, and stahough holders reduced their prices so as to a low a margin for ship ent to Northern markets, yet there are no buyers in consequence of the difficulty in the way of Exchange. We heard of one or two small sales of red early in the week at $1 15@1 18 as to quality, but during the past few days we have not heard of a sale, and, of curse, the value of the article is altogether nominal. Receipts of the week 10,460 bushels. Exported to Liverpool 34,170 but he s, and to New York 4,000 bushels.

FLOUR—The same cause which has depressed the Cotton Plova—The same cause which has depressed the Cotton and Wheat market has also depressed the market for this acticle, and there have been no sales during the week except in a retail way to consumers at $6@6% for uper an l Extras in sacks and bbls. For wholesale transactions, prices a e entirely nominal, but we think that if cash were in th arket, purcha es could be made at 50 cents per bbl unde above figures. Receipts of the week 2,100 sacks at 1.9 to bbis. Exports to Liverpool 581 bbls. To New York Bacon-We have no material change to notice in th acon market Prices are perhaps a shade easier owing to the stringency in money matters. We note small sales of Shoulders at 14% 5 cents, and Sides at 16%@17 cts. Hams are scarce. We quote 12@17 cents per ib., as to
